Spotlight on the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) Southern Arizona

The mission of NAMI Southern Arizona is to improve the quality of life for individuals who live with mental illness and for their family members by providing education, advocacy, and support that is high quality, recovery oriented, and culturally sensitive.

NAMI Southern Arizona is an affiliate of the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI). NAMI has 1,200 affiliates in the U.S. NAMI is a non-profit, grassroots organization providing advocacy, education, and support to all those affected by mental illnesses.

For more than 25 years, NAMI of Southern Arizona has been helping individuals with mental illness and their families. Many members, staff, and volunteers of NAMI Southern Arizona are individuals who have experience with mental illness because they have a mental illness themselves, or they have a loved one with a mental illness.

Advocacy for individuals with a mental illness and their families is offered through office appointments with Staff Advocates and Resource Specialist Advocates

Education is offered through various groups and presentations for families of individuals with a mental illness and the general public.

Support through groups and mentor programs for individuals experiencing a mental illness and their families.

*Many of the services offered by NAMI Southern Arizona are also available in Spanish.

Playtime

Treasure Hide and Seek

Use any object that's handy and easy to spot to use as the "treasure" in a game of hide and seek. While the seekers hide their eyes and count to 30, the hider finds a good place to hide the treasure. Then everyone looks for it. Whoever finds the treasure is the new hider. Everyone enjoys this game and preschoolers can play too. Play outdoors or inside.

Scavenger Hunt

Draw up a list of things to look for at the park or on a hike, then look for them. Simple enough. Make the hunt more interesting and challenging by first generating a list of about 100 possible items (a feather, a soda can, a red leaf, a caterpillar, an empty chip bag, whatever...). Cut apart the list and put all the slips of paper into a jar. Draw out 20 slips and use those as the list for your hike. Or, each person can draw out her own set of 7 to 10 slips. This game is different every time!
